why

Close Collective Catering?

Our Story

Junction Support Services Ltd. originated in the late 1980s, and today is the largest youth organisation in the Ovens and Murray, and a lead advocate for youth engagement in the local community. Junction offers more than 40 programs covering crisis accommodation, youth services, family violence support, disability services, care services, education, driver education and more.

For years, Junction has been hearing from young people and their families that they wanted a safe space to meet and socialise in Wodonga. Junction purchased “The Grove” building in central Wodonga to create a community youth space and a social enterprise café where young individuals will learn and work.

Close Collective Café was established in 2023. The name Close Collective is a dedication to a valued staff member Kate Close who passed away from cancer in 2022. Kate was a strong advocate for young people and her passion is reflected in this new enterprise. Collective represents an idea to bring individuals and organisations together for the collective good of the community.

Now as part of a connected social impact project the profits from our café will contribute to the running of the youth space next door, Windbreak 3690.

Most importantly, 100% of our profits go towards supporting our programs alleviating youth homelessness, including our training program to be launched later in 2024.
